Dear Mr. Murrell:

I am writing to express my gratitude for your tireless efforts on behalf of court funding issues during the 2009 Regular Legislative Session. The Florida Bar's steadfast support of legislation to ensure accountability and transparency in the collection and allocation of court-generated revenue is greatly appreciated. With a stable and sustainable funding source now in place, we can continue to develop a truly unified state court system that ensures justice for all Floridians.

Again, thank you for your ongoing support of Florida's justice system. Our accomplishments could not have been achieved without your contributions.

Sincerely,
